Winter means you get to bring out your coats and boots – just one excellent reason to get out of the house and keep travelling this season. Here are some more...

01 BIKE PANTS Despite what you may see on the streets, cycle pants don't all come in lairy-coloured lycra. Fitzroy local Joyce Watts has started online store CycleStyle, which stocks bike-friendly fashion and accessories such as these Daily Riding Pants by Outlier, $229. cyclestyle.com.au 02 WINTER COAT Seems Driza-Bone jackets have had a makeover and we love the result. The Lucyvale jacket will keep you warm without making you look like a Snowy River stockman, $329. drizabone.com.au 03 SCARF Prints add a fun twist to serious winter fashion. Prova 100% silk Marie Celeste scarf, $511. hanker.com 04 CARDIGAN We love a woolly cardie to snuggle up in over winter, $89.50. www.deshabille.com.au 05 HAT Don't let your body heat escape this winter. Keep warm with a red Italian-made felt hat from Crochetta, $95. Stockists: (03) 9529 6711 06 BANGLE Add a touch of colour to grey days with a Joey bangle from Kununurra-based The Bangle Business, $50. www.thebanglebusiness.com 07 WRIST BAND Swatch isn't just about watches, as this bright, wanna-have-it wristband proves. Bijoux orange bracelet, $35. www.swatch.com.au 08 TRAVEL WALLET Confound electronic pickpockets while travelling overseas with the Pacsafe RFID Safe 50 passport protector, which shields swipe-readable passports and credit cards against identity theft and credit-card cloning, $34.95. www.outdoorsurvival.com.au 09 PEN Get some smooth action from the Kontor rollerball pen, $19.95. kikki-k.com 10 OVERNIGHT BAG Versatility abounds in this canvas and leather everyday-use overnight bag, which is big enough to hold a 17in laptop or a change of clothes, $300. kikki-k.com 11 BOOTS Giddy-up and get into some Camper women's Woodie tan knee-high riding boots, $400. campershoes.com.au 12 WATCH Big-faced, man-style watches are just the ticker this season.
