LAZING AROUND THE HOUSE HAS NEVER LOOKED THIS GOOD

"Luxury must be comfortable, otherwise it is not luxury." - Coco Chanel

Forget old track pants and faded flannelettes, ladies in the know have traded their pyjamas for deluxe loungewear. Deshabille has the perfect Summer 09/10 collection to help you inject a little glamour into your everyday life without you having to ever leave your home.

The Deshabille collection is not your everyday sleepwear, each garment is beautifully finished with hand-picked trims and made from the finest natural fabrics to allow your skin to breathe while you recline. The brainchild of designer Roslyn Bellerby, Deshabille places an emphasis on quality so each garment feels truly special with its intricate finishes, beautiful trims and embroideries.
